BY-LAW VI

AMENDMENTS & SUPPLEMENTARY ARTICLES

POLICY CHANGE: BY-LAW VI
Article 5. USE AND BEHAVIOUR.

FROM:
5.5 (b) Insurance
Members must obtain public liability and fire insurance for their unit. If this insurance is not obtained through the Co-operative, members must provide proof of insurance to the Co-operative annually and at other times if requested by the Co-operative.

TO:
5.5 (b) Insurance:
It is recommended that all members obtain public liability and fire insurance for their unit.

POLICY CHANGE: BY-LAW VI
Article 3. Members Contribution:

FROM:
3.7 Participation:
Members must attend all general members's meetings and take part in the activities of the co-op. (The co-op may set out the requirements for participation of members in a separate by-law.)

TO:
3.7 Participation:
It is mandatory that at least one member from each unit attend all general member's meetings. Regrets for failure to attend said meetings must be in writing to the co-op office in a timely manner. (The co-op may set out the requirements for participation of members in a separate by-law).
AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAW VI (GUESTS, SITTERS, FAMILY)

Casual Guests

- A Casual Guest is someone who visit a member for less than a month.
- A Member does not have to report a Casual Guest to the office.
- A Casual Guest does not have to hand in their Vehicle Plate number to the office.

House Sitters (Addition to By-Law 6)
Definition of a House Sitter is as follows:

- Anyone who will be staying in your unit while you are away.
- The member must inform the office and provide the office with the person or persons name(s).
- Vehicle plate number(s) and the length of time the house sitter(s) will be staying in the unit.
- House Sitters must comply with all By-Laws and Policies of the Co-op.
- The members are still responsible to keep their financial obligations to the Co-Operative up to date.

Adult Child/Children moving home (Addition to By-Law 6)

- The member must notify the office.
- The Adult Child/Children cannot apply for membership for one year.
- The Adult Child/Children must follow the same criteria as any other Adult Child applying for a unit.
- The Adult Child/Children must hand in their Vehicle Plate number to the office.

Approved By membership May 19, 2015
Approved By Board with changes (*) May 26, 2015
General membership AGM Oct/2015
Approved By General members Oct 27, 2015